

MBA-MANAGEMENT TRACK

MBA-Management Program Overview

The Texas A&M University – Texarkana Master of Business Administration (MBA) in Management program is designed to help build and enhance the skill set you need to compete in today's fast-paced marketplace. Our program partners with local organizations in the designing of its courses to ensure current and future industry needs are being met. Students regularly engage in rich discussions with faculty and peers that serve to enhance the learning dynamic while providing an effective environment to stimulate critical thinking and problem-solution development.

Our MBA in Management graduates can expect to gain an overall knowledge of leadership in management, strategic planning, and a well-rounded foundation in higher level management functions. This program has the availability to be completed online which enhances and encourages student interaction from all over the globe.
