

MASTER OF SCIENCE-INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGN AND TECHNOLOGY

Admission Requirements

- Baccalaureate degree
- Minimum of cumulative 3.00 GPA or 3.00 GPA in last 60 hours of undergraduate degree program
- Letter of interest and commitment
- Interview
- Current Resume

Requirements must be submitted to the Graduate Studies Office by the designated deadline of first semester enrollment.

Contact: Dr. Kevin Williams; (903) 223-3028; kevin.williams@tamut.edu

Degree Requirements

Students should refer to their DegreeWorks degree audit in their Web for Students account for more information regarding their degree requirements.

Code	Title	Hours
Major Courses
ITED 501	Instructional Technology Foundations	3
ITED 511	Teaching with Emerging Technologies	3
ITED 512	Evaluation in Instructional Technology	3
ITED 520	Instructional Design and Development	3
ITED 545	Instructional Gamification Theory	3
ITED 523	Online Learning and Teaching	3
ITED 530	Research in Instructional Technology	3
or ED 520	Research Design
ITED 532	Leadership in Educational Technology	3
ITED 580	Advanced Instructional Technology Project Management	3
Prescribed Electives		9
Minimum Hours for Degree		36