The BSW program at A&M-Texarkana seeks to provide students with a quality education and prepare students with entry-level skills to become generalist social work practitioners prepared to address and work with diverse clients dealing with complex social issues.

PROGRAM MISSION

The A&M-Texarkana Baccalaureate Social Work (BSW) Program mission is to prepare students as generalist Social Work practitioners to work with constituents at various systems levels to address regional problems related to poverty, chronic illness, and other social and economic injustices. The program seeks to prepare students with professional knowledge, values, skills, and processes guided by human rights, respect for diversities, and social responsibility and centralized around anti-oppressive, and trauma-informed social work practices essential for working with complex issues faced by individuals, families, communities, and organizations.

PROGRAM GOALS

1. Prepare competent generalist social workers ready to engage with diverse client systems.
2. Engage students in research to better inform their practice and policy advocacy efforts.
3. Prepare students to promote anti-racist and anti-oppressive practices with constituents at various system levels within a variety of professional contexts.
4. Enhance students' problem-solving skills through experiential learning designed to prepare them for complex case work and ethical decision making in their field work and beyond.
5. Engage students to work in partnership with the community to address local and regional concerns.
6. Educate students about person-in-the-environment and ecological frameworks and how each gives context to providing anti-oppressive and trauma-informed care.
